

Siskiyou County Sustainable Groundwater Management

Groundwater Sustainability Plan Open House and Public Listening Session
Shasta Valley and Scott River Valley Subbasins

Wednesday September 15, 2021

6:00 – 8:00 PM

Doors open at 5:30

Join In-Person or Virtually:

Fort Jones Community Hall

11960 East St, Fort Jones, CA 96032

Zoom Link: <https://stantec.zoom.us/j/96834426437>

Groundwater users and interested community members are invited to attend an Open House and Public Listening Session on the draft Groundwater Sustainability Plans for the Shasta Valley and Scott River Valley groundwater subbasins. Members of the public may choose to attend the event in-person or online.

Time	Agenda Item
5:30	Doors Open Posters are available to view prior to the start of the Open House.
6:00	Welcome Siskiyou County GSA staff
6:10	Overview of Groundwater Sustainability Plans Presentation of the Shasta Valley and Scott River Valley GSPs by the Technical Team, Larry Walker & Associates.
6:45	Questions and Listening Session Members of the public may ask clarifying questions about the GSP and provide feedback on the draft Plans. Note that verbal comments will not be entered into the official public record. Comment cards will be made available for participants to submit written comments.
7:20	Poster Session Members of the public are invited to view posters and engage with GSA Staff and the Technical Team.
8:00	Closing