The Open Space and Conservation Element provides a land use policy framework to guide the conservation and management of Siskiyou County's natural, agricultural, and cultural resources. The Element establishes goals and policies related to open space, water resources, agricultural lands, and biological and cultural resources to inform land use planning and discretionary decision making. This review is informational only and is exempt from CEQA under Guidelines §§15061(b)(3), 15306, and 15378.

Project documents are on file at the Planning Division of the Siskiyou County Community Development Department, 806 South Main Street, Yreka, California, 96097, and are available for public review upon contacting the staff planner. A staff report and all attachments will be available for public review three working days prior to the Planning Commission meeting either at the Planning Division office or online on the Siskiyou County Planning Commission's meeting page: <https://www.siskiyoucounty.gov/planningcommission/page/planning-commission-meeting-19>
